"The recording of the deed was necessary in order to negotiate a second mortgage on the property. In all that time we had not the faintest notion of Mrs. Knight's identity.

"On her third visit she was recognised by a client of our office. Then we learned that our esteemed old friend Mrs. Knight was the world's champion woman swindler.

Ellen Peck's maiden name was Crosby. She was born in New Hampehira. At sighteen she was a school teacher in Connecticut. Richard W. Peck of this city married her and established a home at Sparkill, N. T. Four children were born and she brought them up with the utmost care. All turned out well.
